

For our community's 250th Anniversary, share your...

250 REASONS TO LOVE FORSYTH COUNTY

Maybe it's a special place like Bethabara, Old Salem, Tanglewood or Korner's Folly...

...or a friendly town like Walkertown, Rural Hall or Lewisville...

...or a special place to eat,
or shop,
or discover arts and crafts.

Maybe it's a certain stretch of road or a unique lake
or hillside or farm.

Maybe it's a terrific school or employer...
...or there are almost certainly special people in your life that make it easy to LOVE FORSYTH COUNTY.

Share one or two or even a dozen of your reasons with us and you could...

WIN a $500 Prize Package!

All entries that are chosen for the 250th Anniversary list will be archived in the official 250th Anniversary Memory Book and also published in the Winston-Salem Journal
during the weekend of November 12-14.

Prize Package includes:

- Tickets to Local Historical Attractions including Bethabara, Old Salem and Korner's Folly
- A 250th Celebration t-shirt
- A Forsyth County History "Book Stack" valued at over $100
- Dinner for four at Salem Tavern and The Zevely House
- A Forsyth Sampler of delicious local foods and local products
- Commemorative poster by Elsie Dinsmore Popkin

Mail your entry list to:

250 Reasons Contest/Winston-Salem Journal
418 N. Marshall Street, Winston-Salem, NC 27101

Or email your entry to:
contests@wsjournal.com

WINSTON-SALEM
JOURNAL
the source

FORSYTH COUNTY, NC

250
ANNIVERSARY
1753 ~ 2003

WINSTON-SALEM, NC

Celebrating the founding settlement of Winston-Salem and Forsyth County at Bethabara in 1753.

CONTEST RULES: Open to all ages that love living in Forsyth. Entries will be reviewed by a panel of judges. All decisions of the judges will be final. Entries selected will be entered in a drawing for the grand prize. In the event more than one person enters the same item, the postmark will determine which get entered. If the postmarks are the same, a random drawing will be held. All entries become the property of the Winston-Salem Journal and the 250th Anniversary Celebration.