WINSTON-SALEM, NC

Celebrate!

November 12-14, 2004 Rain or Shine!

Meet Local Artists

Friday, November 12, 5:00-7:00 p.m.

County Government Center, 201 N. Chestnut Street
co-sponsored by
Forsyth County & the City of Winston-Salem

Meet artists Patty Bailey-Sheets, John Furches and Philip Gibbs and view their art on Winston-Salem & Forsyth County, which will also be for sale. Enjoy film clips from Winston-Salem's past. Have a caricature done by Nat Belin or by Mayor Allen Joines or County Commission Chairman Pete Brunstetter. Talk with historic figures from Winston-Salem's past and future! Refreshments. Free.

"State of the Art" Exhibit & Reception

Friday, November 12, 7:00-9:00 p.m.

Sawtooth Center
hosted by
Associated Artists of Winston-Salem

The exhibit showcases works by North Carolina artists and has been juried by Dr. Lawrence Wheeler, director of the North Carolina Museum of Art. Free.

Westbend Vineyards Winetasting

Friday, November 12
7:00-9:00 p.m.

Sawtooth Center

Taste award-winning wines from Forsyth County's own Westbend Vineyards, the oldest winery in the Yadkin Valley. Free.

The HOME House Project

Friday, November 12, 7:00 p.m.

Talk & slide show by
David J. Brown, Curator
Southeastern Center For Contemporary Art
Mountcastle Forum in the Sawtooth Center

Learn about SECCA's innovative multi-year initiative on the future of affordable housing and see slides of many of the winning entries. This landmark project has attracted international attention, and SECCA is working with several partners to build some of the more than 442 designs that were received from all over the United States and 6 foreign countries. Free.

Bus transportation will be available between the Government Center & Sawtooth Center from 6:30 to 9:15 p.m. for these events. Park at either location and leave the driving to us!
